

CHILDREN'S PROGRAMMING FOR Saturday, May 31, 2008
7:00 – 7:30 a.m. Episode: 88

TELLY AWARDS
REAL LIFE 101 JUST WON A 2008 BRONZE TELLY AWARD IN THE CATEGORIES OF "CHILDRENS" AND "EDUCATIONAL".

2008 PARENTING AWARD

The concept for Real Life 101 is bold yet simple. Real life jobs and careers are explored in an energetic style as an education and information (E/I) presentation for teenage viewers, ages 13-16 in 2008. The careers and people chosen to reflect those categories offer a vital inside look at what it would really be like to choose that particular profession. A co-host approach allows for interchange of questions and responses adding viewer stimulation and insight.

EPISODE 82

We asked Luis and Carley what their favorite segments were from last season. It was a tough decision, but they narrowed them down to three interviews. The first was the one we did with the TV meteorologist. The voice-over artists were a favorite of Luis'. Carley also loved the one about dogs trained to assist disabled people. You may recall these from last season. . . but if not, don't despair, because we're going to run them for you again today!

EPISODE 83

We're going to revisit New Orleans to look at three occupations. The segments were shot right before Hurricane Katrina devastated the area. We're going to show you the interviews and update you on how the people and businesses are doing now. First, we're going to feature a visit with a doctor who cares for very sick newborns at the Ochsner Clinic in New Orleans. Next, we'll take you to the famed Galatoire's and meet up with a waiter who works at this wonderful restaurant. Then, we'll show you a special school where you'll meet a man dedicated to keeping kids drug-free and off the streets.

EPISODE 84

Today, we're going to start out with a very demanding career that only a select few get chosen for. You'll want to watch as Luis talks with a man who works for the FBI. Then, he'll meet up with a Human Resource Manager. We'll find out about her job and how she works with employees from hiring to firing. You'll also get some tips on being prepared for a job interview... and how to increase your chances of being hired. Finally, we'll recall another one of Luis' favorite interviews from last year. He had way too much fun in the simulator with a Jet Blue pilot and begged us to show it again!

EPISODE 85

Are you intrigued by the world of espionage and counterterrorism? If so, you'll love our first segment. It comes straight at us from the FBI. It's directed to all of us girls and will introduce us to the challenging career of serving our country as a Special Agent. Then we'll meet with a Software Development Manager for an Engineering Consulting firm. That, too, looks like an interesting and challenging profession! You won't want to miss our final segment when Luis gets up close and personal with some scary creatures from Gatorland Zoo!

EPISODE 86

Join us as Real Life 101 Goes Cruising. Today, we're going to devote the entire show to jobs in the cruise industry! Carley recently spent a day on a Royal Caribbean ship and learned about what it's like to work on a luxury liner. Today, we're going to see her join the Captain on the ship's bridge and learn what it takes to be the master of the vessel and how it operates. Then she'll visit with the Hotel Director, who will talk to her about the many other departments of the ship. And finally, she'll chat with the Cruise Director and hear how he coordinates all the fun and entertainment on the ship.

EPISODE 87

Do you ever wonder who chooses the music or topics you hear on the radio? Well, today, we're going to find out as Luis takes us behind the scenes at a radio station where he chats with the Program Director. Then, we'll visit with a lady who helps injured or handicapped children perform everyday tasks. Carley sat down with a Pediatric Occupational Therapist and learned a bit about her profession. And last, but not least, we'll see Luis reclining in the dental chair as he finds out about becoming a dentist. We had to promise him that the dentist wouldn't start drilling!

EPISODE 88

Have you ever thought about how a newspaper can print tens or even hundreds of thousands of newspapers in just a short amount of time? We're going to take you to a printing press room where Carley will meet with a press operator and find out. Then, we'll learn some of the secrets of how hotels figure out the different pricing on their rooms. As you'll find out in our second segment, this is no accident . . . a lot of careful analysis goes into the job. And finally, we'll show you how different TV and theatre characters are produced with the creative strokes of a special effects makeup artist. You won't want to miss what she does with Carley!

EPISODE 89

Are you looking for adventure, travel and even a free education? Today, we're going to introduce you to some of the job opportunities in the US Army. Or maybe you'd rather set your compass on a different heading . . . and cruise on a ship as a stateroom attendant. You'll wake up in a different port every day! Want to stay close to home? How about working as a computer programmer? You can even work from your house, as we'll see in our final segment.

EPISODE 90

Today, we're going to take you into a courtroom where we'll meet a judge who helps see that the law of the land is carried out. Then we're going to meet a little dog named "Bijou" and see how he's professionally groomed and pampered, all without having to leave home. And, we'll introduce you to an editor who acts as a public liaison and who's not afraid to take a stand – even against his own newspaper.

EPISODE 91

Ever since 9/11, immigration into the United States has been a very hot topic. We'll talk to an attorney who has become somewhat of an advocate for people from other countries who want to make their home in the USA. Plus. . . a photo in a newspaper can often times convey a story better . . . and more quickly . . . than words can. We'll meet the person who chooses which photos are going to tell the day's stories. We'll also visit a home that is being painted by a man who started from scratch as a painter. He'll tell us what it took to build his business.

EPISODE 92

Today we're going to introduce you to a Breaking News Editor who will discuss how he oversees delivering news almost immediately to the paper's internet site. We're also going to take you to meet a Victims Services Advocate from Safe House, an organization whose mission it is to end domestic violence. You'll also learn how you can get help for yourself or someone you know living in an abusive situation. Then, we'll visit the studio of an artist who finds peace and solitude in his career. . . creating award winning art with the simple stroke of a pencil.

EPISODE 93

We're devoting our entire show to working in the newspaper industry. We'll learn how this business is keeping up with our changing technology by not only delivering our news the traditional way but also focusing on getting information out through the internet. A staff writer will tell us how he keeps up with the hectic pace of reporting the news. We'll also learn about careers available in the industry from a Human Resources manager. To top our day off, we're going to meet with the person who oversees the whole production. . .the Editor.

EPISODE 94

We'll get a lesson on being money smart from a Financial Planner and learn about the tools he uses for keeping people financially secure. Then we'll meet a Pediatric Physical Therapist and find out how she helps children with different disabilities and injuries develop and heal. Finally, we'll meet a Professional Organizer who can help us get the clutter out of our lives and spend less time searching for lost items.

EPISODE 95

Today, we're taking a field trip. . .Real Life is going to college! We're not talking about just any college. . . we're going to the University of Florida, the home of the National football and basketball champions, the Florida Gators! We'll be taken on a tour of part of the 2,000 acre campus. Luis will learn what life is like living away from home at Florida's oldest and largest university. Then we'll talk to an admissions counselor to find out what you need to be doing now to get into college in the next few years. We'll also get a glimpse into the operations of the student government and how it serves the needs of the school when we meet the Student Body President.

EPISODE 96

We're going to continue our field trip to one of the country's most academically diverse universities, the University of Florida. We'll pick up by meeting a student athlete who is swimming her way through her 4 years at Florida. She'll tell us what it's like to be actively involved in a college sports program. When you start college, you'll be faced with the decision of whether you want to join a fraternity or sorority. We'll talk to a fraternity President and get a glimpse into the "Greek" side of college. Are you considering becoming a doctor? The University has a great medical program. We'll meet a medical student and learn about the challenges she faces in school.

EPISODE 97

We'll meet with a man who's made a profession out of his love of photography, especially making people look good for portraits and head shots. Then, we'll visit a dance clothing and accessory boutique where you can even rent costumes worn by the contestants from the TV show, "Dancing with the Stars." For those of you into sports – and writing, we'll let you in on a way to get up close and personal with your favorite sports teams and make a living!

EPISODE 98

First, Luis is going to sit down with a Chief Engineer for a hotel. I never even knew hotels had engineers – can you guess what they do? Then we'll meet a dietician who makes up a special diet for kids with seizures that helps them go seizure-free. Finally, we'll talk to a couple of librarians who will let us know how their duties have evolved over the years.

EPISODE 99

The entire show is being devoted to careers in the hotel industry. It takes many people working together as a team to have a hotel that meets people's expectations and makes them feel at home whether they're staying for business or pleasure. Today, we'll talk to the General Manager who oversees the entire operation of the facility of a hotel. We'll also meet with the person responsible for maintaining and keeping the rooms clean, the Director of Housekeeping. Plus, we'll meet with the person in charge of booking meeting and banquet functions on the property, the Director of Sales and Marketing.

EPISODE 100

First we'll meet a chaplain who works in a hospital bringing peace and comfort to patients and their families. For those of you interested in criminal justice, we'll meet a man who is the Chief Probation Officer in a federal court and learn about the probation system. And finally, we'll visit a nursing home and see how an activities director and her dog keep the patients occupied and enjoying life.

EPISODE 101

We're going to meet a Real Estate Attorney who has balanced his career with his passion for helping others in the small African country of Namibia. We'll also visit with the controller for a Sheraton Hotel. He'll introduce us to how he crunches numbers for financial reports. Then it's off to the cruise ship again as we meet a young man who entertains the guests with his talented voice. He'll even sing us a little tune – a cappella!

EPISODE 102

Did you know when you meet someone you have just 10 seconds to make an impression on them? We'll learn from an image consultant how to make sure that first impression is a positive one. Then we'll visit a hair salon and learn about styles, coloring and a special program where you can donate your hair when it's time to take the cutting shears to that ponytail. We'll also take you to Florida's Museum of Natural History and meet up with a shark researcher who has devoted his career to investigating shark attacks and sharks around the world.

EPISODE 103

Today, we'll introduce you to the world of Pediatric Speech and Language Pathology and see how this can be a rewarding career for people who love to work with children. Then, we'll get the scoop on the daily routine of a newspaper's business news reporter. We'll also take you to a home that is being given a beautiful addition of an outdoor living area – and tell you where you can find information about being an apprentice in construction.

EPISODE 104

Buying a home is usually the biggest purchase someone makes. We'll speak with a mortgage banker and find out what's involved in getting a loan so a person can move into the home of their dreams. In our stressful world, a lot of people have trouble coping with different issues. We'll speak with a mental health counselor and see how she helps her clients get through life. Want some of the challenges and stimulation of the legal profession without going to law school? How about choosing a career as a paralegal?

EPISODE 105

First, we'll talk to a newspaper columnist and learn how he broke into his field and find out what he does to keep his loyal following reading his columns. Did you ever wonder where the exact property line is between your house and your neighbors'? We'll meet up with a professional land surveyor who will fill us in on how subdivisions and other properties are measured so that the lots can be built on. And last, but not least, we'll meet a Probation Officer and see how she helps criminal offenders live clean, productive lives.

EPISODE 106

We're going to start out by visiting the photo editor at a newspaper. We'll see how he works with all the various departments to get the perfect photos throughout the paper and online. Then we'll meet the guy we call when the water pipes break or the toilet overflows. . .our handy plumber.

We'll finish by visiting the cruise ship and meeting the man responsible for overseeing one of the highlights of cruising – the food and beverage manager.

EPISODE 107

We'll talk to an audiologist who has found a rewarding career diagnosing and treating hearing disorders. Then, we'll meet a young lady who has a very enviable job as a dance captain on a cruise ship. Finally, Luis has his fears of the dental chair calmed when he visits a dental hygienist who fills him in on she helps people maintain their oral health.